

KLOVE is such a benefit to my family and my community. It provides a positive, encouraging station that we can listen to without being subjected to the negative music, commercials, etc... that are on other stations. It lifts my spirits when I am down, it offers me encouragement when I am having a bad day; I share it with my coworkers and friends and it has a positive influence on all of us. Please don't take KLOVE off the air...